

THE ARTISAN & CLASSIC BOAT SOCIETY

RUDDER

People were still buzzing on Thursday from their night at Hall's Marina. Owner Steve Lamondo welcomed everyone to the meeting by hosting an informal cocktail party at his historic marina. "It was more than a cocktail party," said one recuperating guest, "it was a party! We danced!" Anybody who's witnessed our previous feeble attempts will know that's saying a lot. Maybe it was the open bar—always a hit with ACBS revelers—or maybe it was the hot Jimmy Buffet-style band that had people shaking it. But whatever the reason, Steve cemented his reputation as all-around great guy that evening; the free water taxi and trolley rides during the show to view the boats at his docks that he'd opened for our members' use only further enhanced his status. Steve truly was an outstandingly generous host.
